

1 INT. JANE'S ROOM - A MOMENT LATER*1

Jane, Helios, Yara, Tubi, and Ort are standing around the table. Tubi is off to the side, his acting sequence complete.

JANE

Alright, Yara! We have Tubi acting.
What performance art do you want to try?

YARA

Singing!

JANE

Singing!

Ort gongs his approval. Tubi squeaks.

HELIOS

Singing! I know singing!

JANE

Singing is when we make music with our voice.

HELIOS

Yes! Show us, Yara!

Yara sings. She's very good, albeit a little nervous. Her confidence and volume grow as the song crescendos. She finishes with a flourish.

HELIOS

Ooooooo, that's beautiful! I want to try!

Helios sings in a honking way. It's rough, but not terrible.

JANE

OK, a little different.

HELIOS

Is that bad?

YARA

No, it isn't bad. We all have different voices.

JANE

That's right, Yara. Singing depends on each person's throat, tongue, and mouth.

HELIOS

So every voice is different?

JANE

Every voice is different! That's what makes singing so wonderful!

Ort gongs a question.

JANE

How does someone become a good singer? Great question, Ort. To become a good singer you need to practice.

HELIOS

Practice. (beat) Yara, maybe after the show you and I could practice singing together?

YARA

I would like that.

JANE

You'd like singing, Helios. You can sing with musical instruments, like in a band. Or you can sing with other singers, like in a choir.

HELIOS

But what will Yara do? (beat) Yara, will you sing alone?

YARA

Yes!

HELIOS

So brave! Everyone is so so brave!

JANE

Everyone is being brave today. We have Tubi acting and Yara singing. Who's next?

Ort rumbles his readiness. Helios yips.
